Today's Game

Tigers Entertain NAIA Champion Pittsburg

Fort Hays State's Tigers have their work cut out for them in today's Homecoming battle.

The opponent, Pittsburg State, is the defending national small college champion and is currently ranked among the top 20 small college teams nationally. The Gorillas are the only team

Next Week

Next Saturday afternoon the Tigers invade Emporia to furnish the E-State Hornets opposition in their Band Day feature. Game time at Emporia's Welch Stadium will be 2 p.m. It will be another important CIC contest, with the improved Emporia team battling to stay out of the league cellar. Local fans not attending the game can hear the play-by-play on KAYS radio. The next home game will be Nov. 10 when Washburn University comes to Hays for the season's conference finale.

to win two NAIA national grid titles, turning the trick in 1957 as well as last season.

And today's clash is a "must" for both squads if they are to stay abreast in the Central Intercollegiate Conference race. Pitt is the odds-on favorite for the title, but a loss today would

In History . . .

A year ago . . .

FHS became the first team in six games to score on the high-flying Pitt Gorillas, as the Tigers managed a 7-0 first quarter advantage. But the homestanding Pitt crew, playing before more than 13,000 Homecoming fans, had it all their own way after that and romped to a 41-7 victory. The Gorillas went on to win the national small college championship and chart 11 straight victories. Wayne Schumacher scored the surprising, but only, Tiger TD.

Five years ago . . .

Enroute to another small college national title, Pitt buried FHS, 54-0, at Pittsburg. The Tigers never threatened and managed only 50 yards rushing and 12 passing, while Pitt rolled up 426 yards in total offense. It was the biggest rout in the history of the series.

Ten years ago . . .

An inspired FHS squad came from behind to surprise the heavily-favored Gorillas, 7-7, at Lewis Field Stadium. Two freshmen, Harry Vratil and Richard Lousch, led the Tigers, with Lousch getting the lone TD. Curt DeBey kicked the extra point. It was one of the few bright spots in a 1-6-2 season for FHS.

put the Gorillas behind Omaha and Fort Hays State, who tied last week.

If the Tigers win today, they must then down their remaining three league foes and wait for someone to knock off Omaha.

Pitt holds a definite upper hand in the history of the series. In 34 past games, beginning in 1925, the Gorillas have won 20 to only eight for FHS. Six games ended in ties. Pitt has won the last three, including a 41-7 decision last year and a 44-7 romp the year before. Fort Hays State's last triumph was by a 16-7 tally in the Homecoming game of 1958.

This year the Southeast Kansas squad has a 4-1 mark, with victories over Southwest Missouri, 14-7; Central Missouri, 16-0; Missouri Mines, 28-6, and St. Benedict's, 34-14. The loss was to Northeast Missouri 34-12.

FHS has blanked Northwest Missouri, 21-0, and Colorado College, 33-0; lost to Kearney (Neb.) State, 27-13, and tied Omaha, 20-20.

Coach Carnie Smith's Pitt team is led offensively by all-CIC quarterback Phil Vogrin. Carrying the rushing load are lettermen Bob Fulton, who charted 172 yards rushing against St. Benedict's, and Chuck Sturdevant.

In the line, the Gorillas offer NAIA All-American Harlan Hess, who has moved from tackle to end, and 245-pound Jerry Archer, NAIA All-American linebacker, in addition to all-CIC honorable mention guard Tom Spiewak. All-CIC guard Eddie Carter has an injured leg and probably won't play today.

For FHS, halfbacks Royce Hamala and Larry Bates will be back in action after missing the Omaha game and quarterback Dave Parker appears to be returning to playing form after a virus cost him an 18-pound weight loss.

Welcome from President Cunningham

HOECOMING is a great time. As you look back it was not too long ago that you were a student on the campus and looked forward to the returning of graduates and friends for the Homecoming game.

The Fort Hays State faculty and students have been planning for weeks on this year's Homecoming and you, too, have been eager to get back on the campus and to meet old friends and teachers and to see what has taken place here.

I extend a personal welcome to each and every one of you, and I hope you enjoy the game and all of the homecoming events. Your attendance, participation and interest in our homecoming activities and your support at all times is evidence of your loyalty to this college. I hope that we shall continue to merit your confidence and good will and that you will come to the campus at every opportunity and feel at home here.

We are proud of our team and wish them well today. They are making one of the finest showings in recent years, and we hope they continue their fine play against a worthy opponent, twice national champions.

Again, a hearty welcome. Come to see us often.

M. C. Cunningham, President

It's a Busy, Exciting Homecoming at Fort Hays State

The thrilling Homecoming Day at Fort Hays State College reaches its climax in events occurring this afternoon. Homecoming highlights remaining on the schedule:

Sixth Annual 'Busch' Gross Award Announced Today

One of the highlights of each year's Homecoming activities is the announcement of the recipient of the annual "Busch" Gross Award. This year the sixth such award will be given, honoring the outstanding senior athlete of the past school year (1961-62).

A committee annually selects the winner on the basis of character, leadership, scholarship and athletic achievement while on the Fort Hays State campus. The award today will be made before the opening kickoff, with Alumni Assn. president Scotty Philip, class of 1935, making the presentation.

The award is a tribute to Paul "Busch" Gross, now in his 33rd year on the FHS faculty. Busch was a Tiger athlete from 1917 through 1921, a Tiger coach from 1930 through 1946 and FHS athletic director from 1930 to the present day. He is a native of Hays.

Past winners of the award, the sports in which they competed and their present position:

1958 Dan Johnson, Hays (football-track); farming near Hays.

1959 Gary Casey, Hutchinson (basketball-track); coaching at Hutchinson.

1960 Darrell Hildebrand, Hill City (football-track); coaching at Hugoton.

1961 Lyle Wingate, Pretty Prairie (basketball-track); coaching at Shawnee-Mission North.

Alumni, Endowment Associations Extend Welcome

Welcome to Homecoming 1962! It is a very real pleasure to have so many alumni and friends join us in the celebration of this event.

We believe your presence here today indicates a genuine interest in the progress of Fort Hays State. Your interest is necessary if we are to continue building excellence of quality.

Make yourself at home today. Take a look around the campus. We believe you will like the things you see and the spirit you feel. Come back and see us often. You will find a warm welcome awaiting you. Above all, thanks for coming, and we hope you have a ball!

Harold A. Stones
Executive Secretary
Fort Hays Alumni, Inc.

After several years of minimum activity since the drive to raise funds to help complete the Memorial Union, The Endowment Assn. has been reactivated during the past year.

The college administration is "on the ball" in making plans for the future. We are very proud of the growth record of Fort Hays State. However, we are also very aware of some of the problems inherent with this growth. Most of them are concerned with additional plant facilities and improvement of instruction.

To meet our needs will require considerable amounts of money—much of which will come from legislative appropriations. But a sizable percentage must necessarily come from private giving.

We invite you to inform yourself on our current status. Ask us for a copy of "The Price of Excellence at Fort Hays Kansas State College." It gives a brief explanation of our problem and suggested solution.

Kent Collier
Executive Secretary
The Endowment Assn.

One of These Coeds is 1962 Homecoming Queen

Lineman Jim Sanderson

Lineman Jim Sanderson, a former Connecticut all-stater, contributes to Fort Hays State's strong interior line both offensively and defensively. A 219-pound junior, he starts at guard on offense and has seen starting calls at tackle on the defensive unit. Sandy transferred to FHS from Kansas State University, where he earned a freshman letter in football in 1959. He was all-state and all-conference at Hillhouse High School in New Haven, Conn., where he lettered four times in football before graduating in 1956. He is an unofficial squad leader and often serves as team spokesman in squad meetings. Jim is married and lives in LaCrosse, where his wife teaches. He is majoring in physical education.

End Bill Walters

End Bill Walters is in his second season as a starting defensive wingman for the Tigers and has become one of the mainstays in the defensive line. Tough and picking up experience fast, Bill should become one of the top defensive ends in the conference. A 192-pound sophomore, he has put on more than 15 pounds since last fall. At St. Joseph Military Academy, where he was graduated in 1961, he was a football, basketball and baseball standout, and he also sparkled in American Legion baseball. Bill is majoring in business.

Guard Kirk Pope

Guard Kirk Pope, a two-year letter winner, is a starter at defensive guard for Coach Wayne McConnell. He has filled that spot since early in the 1961 season and earned McConnell's praise as the Tigers' best defensive lineman at the end of last season. He came to FHS as an end from Selden High School in 1960, but was moved to guard last season. A rugged, determined 211-pounder, he heads the "stay low" unit of defensive linemen. He was honorable mention all-CIC last year. Kirk is majoring in physical education.

Halfback R. Hamala

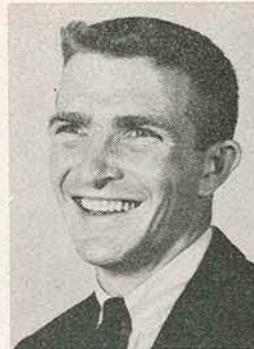

Halfback Royce Hamala hopes to return to the Bengal lineup this weekend after missing the Omaha U. game with a head injury. He has been able to play in only two games, the Colorado College and Kearney affairs, and he missed most of the latter. Royce transferred from Nebraska University, where he redshirted one season. Prior to that he attended Colorado State University and McCook (Neb.) JC. He was junior college All-American fullback at McCook in 1959. Big (191 pounds), powerful and fast, he will start at halfback if he is ready to play. The St. Francis native is married and is majoring in biological science.

FHS Marching Band Performs at Halftime Today

Performing precision marching drills at halftime today will be the Fort Hays State College marching band, directed by Lyle Dilley. The halftime show will offer a change of pace from the novelty band shows featured at most recent Tiger games.

The FHS marching band includes approximately 90 members, including twirlers. Members are selected by audition at the beginning of the school year. In addition to their concert and tour schedule throughout the school year, the band members perform at Tiger home athletic contests and lead the Homecoming parade.

Dilley is in his second year at Fort Hays State, where his faculty position is assistant professor of music and director of bands. He came to FHS after 10 successful years as band director at Wellington High School, where his bands won numerous awards. He has held high offices in several professional music organizations and was a member of the Wichita Symphony Orchestra for 11 years.

Under Dilley's direction, the band will add significantly to the color of today's activities.

Lyle Dilley
Director of Bands

Fort Hays State Cheerleaders, 1962-63

Take a puff...it's Springtime!

Salem refreshes your taste —“air-softens” every puff

In the rich taste of a Salem cigarette, you'll notice a softness very like the clear, mild springtime air. You'll find Salem refreshes your taste, just as springtime refreshes you.
